

Reforming the Public Sector

Policy Session

Queens Birthday Weekend

This session is planning for the reform of the Public Sector to ensure policies are implemented rather than being blocked.

1. Required Reform
2. Legislative Changes Required
3. Changes to Structure of Government Departments and Cabinet
4. Political Campaign to Ensure Reforms Occur
5. Developing good people to run State Sector, and especially the State Services Commission

This session will be held at my house in Havelock North. We will have four sessions of roughly three hours each. It is limited to six people as that is the size of my table.

Session One                      Afternoon Saturday 2nd of June

Broad discussion about all aspects of what we are trying to achieve. The important part of this session is that all ideas must be on the table, and no ideas are stupid at this stage.

Filtering ideas will occur in the next session.

Session Two                      Evening Saturday 2nd of June

A more formal session discussing the reform required.

1. Required Reform
2. Legislative Changes Required
3. Changes to Structure of Government Departments and Cabinet

Discussing the following:

- International Best Practice
- Options worth developing further
- Potential Benchmarks
- Potential Time Line

Session Three                      Morning Sunday 3rd of June

Political Campaign to ensure this happens:

- Campaign Structure
- Campaign Personnel
- Campaign Financing
- Campaign Outlined

Session Four                      Afternoon Sunday 3rd of June

Developing good people to run State Sector, and especially the State Services Commission.

Last hour thorough debrief.

- How has the session worked?
- How could we improve it?
- What are the next steps?

Please note out of courtesy to the others attending:

1. Do not come if you cannot commit to all four sessions.
2. Do not come if you cannot commit to turning off your cell phone, refraining from browsing the internet, tweeting, updating facebook etc. Without wishing to appear rude, if you cannot be courteous enough to be fully engaged with the people in the room I do not want you no matter who you are or how much more important you think your time is compared to others in the room.

3. You are unable to undertake assigned preparation for the session.
